HISTORY
The first European to record arriving at what is now Rio was Coelho in 1502. The French first settled here in 1535, but the Portuguese gained control in 1567. It was not until 1763, when Rio became the capital of the newly-independent country. In 1960, the capital was moved to Brasilia.

MUSEUMS/PARKS/PLAZAS
Rio is one of the most beautiful cities in the world, with a cultural heritage equal to any city in Europe. Major museums and points of interest have been shown, but a complete list of attractions would be extremely difficult to show. If there is something left off this map that you feel would improve the map's usefulness, please contact us and we will do our best to include it in future editions.

ACCOMMODATION
There are hundreds of hotels in Rio. It has been possible to show only a sampling of hotels on this map. The Flamengo and Botafogo are good areas for hotels. The Catambé district has several independent hotels. If you find a good place that should be added to the map, please let us know, along with its exact location.

Although every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained in this map is up to date and accurate, the author and publisher can accept no liability for the consequences of any mistake or error in content or representation. We would gratefully receive information concerning errors or omissions. Please contact the publisher with changes.
